Charleston

Virginia Gillman Chipman 80th

The family of Virginia Gillman Chipman will honor her at an 80th birthday open house, Sunday, OCt. 3, from 5-7 p.m. at the Pleasant Grove Senior Citizens Center (rear entrance), 30 East Center.

Virginia was born Oct. 3, 1913, in Orem, to Vern T. and Hazeldell Kimber Gillman.

She married Harris B. Chipman. He died July 19, 1989.

She has been active in many positions in the LDS CHurch, and has been a visiting teacher for over 50 years.

She and her husband spent many winters in Nevada and Arizona. She now enjoys traveling with her sisters, working in her yard, crocheting and watching baseball.

She is the mother of 12 children. She has four sisters and one brother.

Emma Miriam Casper Jacklin Clegg

EMMA MIRIAM CASPER JACKLIN CLEGG

Emma Miriam Casper was born March 10, 1882, at Millcreek, Salt Lake County, Utah, daughter of William Nephi and Lucy Edwards Casper. She married Ernest E. Jacklin on January 30, 1901, in the Salt Lake Temple. He died in 1906. She married Henry X. Clegg on September 26, 1917, in the Salt Lake Temple. He died June 14, 1942.

In June, 1883, Emma and Jacklin moved to Charleston and lived in a big house. Her father had two wives and maintained two homes for them. Each mother was good to all the children and they all got along well together.

She went to school in the old town hall, with Alva N. Murdock as a teacher. She gained all her education there. The hall was used for all recreation and other meetings. Church was held in a little red building northwest of the schoolhouse.

When the weather was warm and the high water gone, she was baptized in Provo River west of Charleston by Emmanuel Richman.

She learned to knit while very young, so she knitted her own stockings and helped knit for the younger children. For recreation the girls would get together to sew carpet rags for floor carpets. She worked for families to help earn money to keep her father on a mission to the Southern States when she was 12 years old. One lady she worked for during this time taught her to crochet. She worked for Mrs. J. M. Ritchie while Mrs. Ritchie worked at the old Co-op store in Charleston to keep her husband on a mission. Emma kept the house, cared for two little girls and cooked for the hired man.

In the spring of 1900, at the request of one of her father's missionary companions, she went to work in American Fork. After their marriage the couple lived and worked on his father's farm in American Fork and in 1905 made arrangements to buy it. Her husband died, leaving Emma with three small children, Earl, Leo and Ethel. Five months later, after she had moved back to Charleston, where her youngest daughter, Ernestine, was born.

A few years later Leo was taken ill with a sickness which paralyzed his legs. With good care from his mother, relatives and friends, he lived for five years. He died December 11, 1916.

After she married Henry X. Clegg they lived in Charleston, where she worked in the Primary until 1918, when they moved to Daniel, where the children grew up. In Daniel she was president of the YWMIA for four years, a Sunday School teacher, a teacher and visiting teacher in the Relief Society.

She also reared Victor Offeret, who came to live with them in July, 1921. His mother died when he was five years old and his father, not being able to care for his large family, placed them in foster homes.

Henry and Emma had just started to enjoy life after their families were grown and married. Now Emma, 77, cares for her home, pieces quilts, and crochets for her grandchildren and friends and reads a great deal.

Her children are: Earl George, Leo, Ethel, Ernestine, Victor Offeret and Olive Clegg.

Emma Miriam Casper ∞:
1. Ernest E Jacklin
2. Henry X Clegg

EMMA MIRIAM CASPER JACKLIN CLEGG

Emma Miriam Casper was born March 10, 1882, at Millcreek, Salt Lake County, Utah, daughter of William Nephi and Lucy Edwards Casper. She married Ernest E. Jacklin on January 30, 1901, in the Salt Lake Temple. He died in 1906. She married Henry X. Clegg on September 26, 1917, in the Salt Lake Temple. He died June 14, 1942.

In June, 1883, Emma and Jacklin moved to Charleston and lived in a big house. Her father had two wives and maintained two homes for them. Each mother was good to all the children and they all got along well together.

She went to school in the old town hall, with Alva N. Murdock as a teacher. She gained all her education there. The hall was used for all recreation and other meetings. Church was held in a little red building northwest of the schoolhouse.

When the weather was warm and the high water gone, she was baptized in Provo River west of Charleston by Emmanuel Richman.

She learned to knit while very young, so she knitted her own stockings and helped knit for the younger children. For recreation the girls would get together to sew carpet rags for floor carpets. She worked for families to help earn money to keep her father on a mission to the Southern States when she was 12 years old. One lady she worked for during this time taught her to crochet. She worked for Mrs. J. M. Ritchie while Mrs. Ritchie worked at the old Co-op store in Charleston to keep her husband on a mission. Emma kept the house, cared for two little girls and cooked for the hired man.

In the spring of 1900, at the request of one of her father's missionary companions, she went to work in American Fork. After their marriage the couple lived and worked on his father's farm in American Fork and in 1905 made arrangements to buy it. Her husband died, leaving Emma with three small children, Earl, Leo and Ethel. Five months later, after she had moved back to Charleston, where her youngest daughter, Ernestine, was born.

A few years later Leo was taken ill with a sickness which paralyzed his legs. With good care from his mother, relatives and friends, he lived for five years. He died December 11, 1916.

After she married Henry X. Clegg they lived in Charleston, where she worked in the Primary until 1918, when they moved to Daniel, where the children grew up. In Daniel she was president of the YWMIA for four years, a Sunday School teacher, a teacher and visiting teacher in the Relief Society.

She also reared Victor Offeret, who came to live with them in July, 1921. His mother died when he was five years old and his father, not being able to care for his large family, placed them in foster homes.

Henry and Emma had just started to enjoy life after their families were grown and married. Now Emma, 77, cares for her home, pieces quilts, and crochets for her grandchildren and friends and reads a great deal.

Her children are: Earl George, Leo, Ethel, Ernestine, Victor Offeret and Olive Clegg.

John Cook

∞ 22 Dec 1866 * 24 Dec 1850 SLC

Elizabeth Ann Casper = dau of

Wm Wallace & Sarah Ann Bean Casper

Thomas Gunderson ∞

Harriet Priscilla Casper = dau of
Wm Wallace & Sarah Ann Bean Casper
Harriet * 28 Oct 1855 SLCU.

John Lauritz Jacobson =

∞

Sarah Merle CASPER = dau of James Moroni

& Margaret Price Casper

Earnest Elijah Jacklin
∞
Emma Miriam Casper * 10 Mar 1882
" is dau of Wm Nephi Casper +
Lucy Edwards

Stanley Jones

∞

Mae Casper = dau of James Moroni Casper Jr + Margaret Price

James Lewis = son of

∞

Sarah McCoy = dau of

George Heber Luck ∞

Sherma Ellen Casper * 1 Mar 1864

" was dau of Wm Wallace Casper
and Sarah Ann Bean

(1) McDonald

Deleres ∞ Casper = dau of Thomas Casper
& Mary Carlen
Later, Deleres Casper McDonald ∞
(2) Arnold Vane Johnson

(2) Willard Mikesell
∞
Elva Simmons (Casper)

John A Milliner =

∞

Mina Casper = James Moroni Casper Jr
& Margaret Price

5 Mar 1965

Jackie Jene Mutersbaugh ∞
Carol Casper = dau of Wm LeRoy
& Elva Simmons Casper
Carol * 26 Apr 1944 @ Heber Ut.

David H Neal ∞

Avarilla Casper = dau of

Wm & Avarilla Durbin Casper

Avarilla Casper * 23 Mar 1819

in Bellville, Richland, Ohio

John Neal ∞

Clemency Litton Casper = dau of
Wm & Avarilla Durbin Casper
Clemency * 19 July 1816 in Richland Ohio.

Karl Douglas Nielsen
∞ 21 Sep 1962
Vera Casper = dau of William
LeRoy Casper & Elva Simmons
Vera * 1 Nov 1939 Heber, Utal

J Verl Rasband = son of
Reed Rasband & Teenie Montgomery
J. Verl ∞ Fern Casper ∞ 9 Aug 1949
J. Verl baptized 10 Oct 1937
" Endowed 3 Jan 1951